'The sacred heart of Jesus is an open heart...' St Teresa of Kolkata

The Most Holy Trinity

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God,
and also the Holy Spirit,
for he has shown us his merciful love.

FIRST READING

Ex 34:4-6. 8-9

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there. He called on the name of the Lord.

The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said, 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Dn 3:52-56. R.V.52

R. Glory and praise for ever!

1. You are blest,
Lord God of our fathers.
Blest your glorious holy name.
2. You are blest
in the temple of your glory.
You are blest
on the throne of your kingdom.
3. You are blest
who gaze into the depths.
You are blest
in the firmament of heaven.

SECOND READING

2 Cor 13:11-13

Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

APOC 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

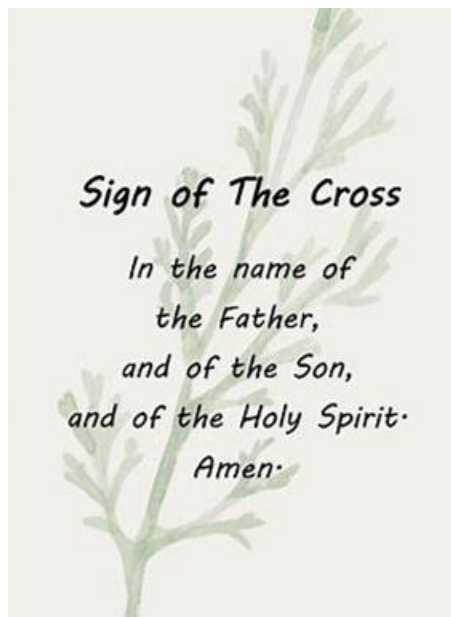

JN 3:16-18

Jesus said to Nicodemus, 'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

GAL 4:6

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

Ministry Evening Reflection

On the evening of 22 May, members of the different Parish ministries gathered for a Reflection night. It was a light atmosphere of sharing experiences, opinions and ideas. It reminded me of the importance of Parish ministries as a foundation of the Parish community. Although we have different roles, yet we are united in keeping the Parish as a whole and active family in Catholic faith. Members of the ministries take their roles responsibly and with sincerity, prepared to perform their duties with passion.

As members of the Westmead Parish family, we should encourage all to volunteer for activities or just be active participants during the celebration of the Holy Mass. As we shared our thoughts, I came to believe that it is everyone's role to take to heart God's Word by contemplating the Readings and Gospel. As well as to take seriously the Holiness of the Eucharist during communion. God's Word and the Holy Eucharist are core components of our Catholic faith. These are what make our faith strong.

Glenda Manansala,
Parishioner

Most Holy Trinity

©Greg Sunter

Trinity Sunday is an opportunity to celebrate the unity of God whom we acknowledge as Father, Son & Spirit. Rather than focusing on the mystery of the Trinitarian God, today is an opportunity to marvel at the single-mindedness of God who is so determined to reveal the length and breadth of God's love to us. That revelation has been made manifest in different ways throughout time but remains constant and unchanging. God is, was, and always will be a God of love. Love is the characteristic of God that is experienced as Father, Son & Spirit. God loved the world into being and loved the people so much that God made a covenant relationship with them and repeatedly drew them back into that relationship when they strayed; and became physically present through Jesus as yet another attempt to draw all people into an awareness of the loving relationship God desired for them. When Jesus could no longer remain a physical presence in the world, God's Spirit became more evident to continue the work of drawing people into that loving relationship with God. Every time we bless ourselves or begin prayer with the sign of the cross, we reaffirm our belief in the Trinity. That seemingly simple prayer, 'In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit,' is, in fact, a confirmation of our belief in a triune God – three in one.
